

British Armoured Formations 1939 - 1945 - A Bibliography

Annotated and Illustrated, incorporating Regiments, Brigades and Armoured Divisions of World War Two

"comprehensive, well produced and attractive... a ground breaking bibliography. Most highly recommended and a must..." – Brig. C. Elderton, C.B.E.

336 pages 32 colour illustrations

240mm x 160mm

ISBN 978-0-9930228-0-7

£36 plus post and packing

CONTENTS:

- Section I – Household Cavalry
- Section II – RAC Heavy Cavalry
- Section III – RAC Light Cavalry
- Section IV – RAC War-raised Cavalry
- Section V – RAC RTR
- Section VI – RAC Reconnaissance Corps
- Section VII – RAC Supplementary Reserve
- Section VIII – RAC TA Yeomanry
- Section IX – RAC TA RTR
- Section X – RAC TA RAC
- Section XI – Corps of Royal Engineers
- Section XII – Foot Guards
- Section XIII – Royal Marines
- Section XIV – Armoured Brigades
- Section XV – Armoured Divisions
- Section XVI – Miscellaneous
- Appdx A – Theatres
- Appdx B – Funnies
- Appdx C – Post-war Titles

- ✳ The only single source reference for tank related histories and memoirs
- ✳ Complete listing of all tank and armoured car regiments
- ✳ The only bibliography to list memoirs of tank veterans
- ✳ Notes section for each entry with comments and observations
- ✳ Summary of journals, magazines, and newspapers
- ✳ Index of Authors
- ✳ 32 colour illustrations of selected publications
- ✳ Appendices provide quick reference tables for the regiments: Theatres of Operations; those using 'Funnies'; and post-war regimental titles for the cavalry
- ✳ Major military libraries visited and holdings noted:
The Tank Museum, Imperial War Museum, National Army Museum, Prince Consort's Library, Royal Military Academy
- ✳ Sewn hardback binding, bound in red cloth with silver embossed title

Purchase on-line

TANK
FACTORY.co

Specialist Military Press

info@tankfactory.co.uk

www.tankfactory.co.uk